

The sealed test envelope

Year 3 student investigation

Can a rule pass the cards it practised and fail new cards?

My prediction

I think this will happen because

Two fair tests

What I changed	What I kept	What happened

My new case

Seal four new cards before selecting a rule. Record the rule before opening the envelope.

Explain and question

My evidence supports this claim. A case that could change my mind is

Use fictional data. Download your project before changing devices. On shared devices, turn remembering off and clear your work when finished.